

Bonutti Clinic's Certified Orthotist, Andy VanNatta Receives Medical Professional Award and Chosen as Mentor for Northwestern University

December 2013

Each year ARC Community Support Systems recognizes individuals who have gone out of their way to make a difference in the lives of people with intellectual disabilities. On Friday, December 13th at the annual ARC-CSS Christmas Dinner and Dance, Mr. Andy VanNatta, Certified Orthotist, was presented with the Medical Professional award. “Having someone who willingly goes out of their way to provide outstanding service makes our jobs at ARC easier and Andy VanNatta is just that person.” said Mike Poe, ARC-CSS Executive Director. When one of our consumers is in need of an orthopedic device he is our “go to guy”! “There is no challenge too difficult for his expertise. He diligently works to help our consumers achieve their very best!” ARC Community Support Systems thanks Andy for his outstanding service to those we serve and look forward to a long future together.

Mr. Andy VanNatta, CO, was recently chosen by the NUPOC (Northwestern University Prosthetic Orthotic Center) to join their mentoring program. He will be aiding students in their studies as they go through the O&P program at Northwestern University. He will help them with research, concepts, case studies and with any questions they have during the program process.
